

“Building Strong Relationships With Your Children.”

Rush-Copley Medical Center invites you to the 11th Confab of Strengthening Families/Be Strong Families.

Raising families gets more challenging all the time. Come and learn how to be part of the movement to support and assist parents in being the best advocates for their children and communities!

The Regional Confab will be led by Parent Leaders. They will be making the presentations and leading you through conversations that will help you build strong relationships with your own family and community.
